AT THE 'VILLE.

Those attending the meeting of the Vermont Federation of Women's Clubs rummage sale takes place tour days of at Barre last week were Mrs. H. E. Folsom, Mrs. John B. Chase, Mrs. A. D. hall Friday evening, Oct. 27. Good music will be furnished, and a good time music will be furnished, and a good time Shakespeare Club, Mrs. A. L. Finney is assured. It is some time since a rumfrom the Woman's Club. The tormer ladies returned Friday, while Mrs. Finney remained until Monday, visiting her mother in Montpelier. All report a very interesting and profitable meeting.

E. M. Campbell and Mrs. Harris Allen were the attendants from here at the meeting of the Grand Lodge, I. O. G. T., at Hardwick last week.

Representative Samuel McCall spent Sunday in town, the guest of W. I.

Clarence Dodge, Dr. F. H. Davis and wife and son Karl were recent visitors to the Hub.

Mr. Girdler of Littleton, N. H., has entered the employ J. C. Eaton & Co., as a plumber. He and Mrs. Girdler, who was Miss Martha Ingerson of this place, will occupy a tenement in Frank Camp's Main street house.

Mrs. Norman McDonald and daughter Corrilla are going to Barton to spend the winter, where Mr. McDonald is at work. Robert Burns and wife will move into the McDonald house, L. T. Huntley and wife will occupy the rooms they va-cate, Mrs. C. W Staples and children will move into the rooms the Huntleys leave, and Mr. and Mrs. William Dyer bave hired the house now occupied by the Staples, which is receiving extensive

H. L. Parker had a successful fire sale of slightly damaged boots, shoes, rubbers, crockery, etc., the last three days of John M. Murch was called to Boston last week by the death of his brother, Charles Murch of Cambridge.

The Juvenile Whist Club held the second meeting of the season Wednesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Powers. very pleasant evening was enjoyed. Five tables of players were present.

The sale of season tickets for the lecture course takes place at Music Hall this evening. A good course is promised, and it is hoped this year it will be financially

Miss Gramberg, recently moved here from Coaticook, P. Q. is working as a stenographer in N. A. Norton's office.

A party of about 18 gentlemen from here and St. Johnsbury were delightfully entertained Friday evening by Theodore

Work on the library has been pushed rapidly until at present, when there is to be a cessation of work for about two weeks on account of the delay in arrival of granite for the foundation.

A supper and dance at the Abnaki Club was a great attraction Friday evening, music being furnished by E. J Blodgett with his phonograph.

An interesting game of foot ball was played on the Institute campus Saturday, in which the Institutes defeated the Newports 10 to 0.

The Shakespeare Club enjoyed a pleasant meeting Wednesday at Mrs. Charles Walter's. They meet today with Mrs. L. C. Ladd. The subjects are: The Great Persecutions, Mrs. Harris; The Apologists, Mrs. Staples; Early Martyrs. Mrs. Wells.—The Woman's Club meets Thursday with Mrs. A. L. Finney. The subject is Music, and the National hynms of all lands Mrs. Morrison; Famous songs, Mrs. Finney; Three great composers, thoven, Mozart, Schubert, Mrs. H. F. Brown.-The Mother's Club meets Thursday evening with Mrs. Harry Quimby. The subject of the meeting is 'Courtesy," led by Mrs. Folsom.

L. B. Harris has offered to Senator Proctor a site for the new tuberculosis sanitarium, and an engineer has been sent here to look the ground over. The report made has not yet been heard, but the surroundings and conditions seem to be most favorable.

Rev. I. W. McLaughlin has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Universalist church and will begin his work the first Sunday in November. There will be no services until that time.

At the recent annual meeting of the Lyndon Club the following officers were elected: President, W. I. Powers; vicepresident, W. S. Jeffers; secretary, N. A. Norton; treasurer, J. W. Copeland; governors, W. I. Powers, A. D. Paige and G. M. Campbell. The club is in a flourishing condition and now has 77 members.

Miss Alice Hutchinson has gone to Quitman, Georgia, to spend a couple of months with her sister, Mrs. Spain. . E. Brunelle is to move into the Wetherbee house, when vacated by William Dyer's family. Arthur Phillips, for about five years an employee in the Journal office, has gone to Bradford to work in the Opinion

Edwin Kingsley, now of St. Johnsbury. is forming a class in vocal music here.

Mrs. Georgiana Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brown and son, have been visiting in Springfield, Mass. Mrs. Minnie Wilmot will work in Mrs.

Bigelow's millinery shop through the fall season. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson of New York have been visiting at S. J. and Homer Wilson's. Mr. and Mrs. Harley Wheeler and son Fay have been in Boston for a few days.

Charles Jenness has moved here from St. Johnsbury Center, and will occupy one of C. J. Bundy's tenements on Main

B. G. Whitney has moved from Dr. Dwinell's house to Charles Darling's house on Main street

The Journal Sold to John B. Chase. The Lyndonville Journal has been sold to Editor John B. Chase of the Vermont Union and Mr. Chase takes possession Thursday. It is his intention to consolidate the two papers and he will move his office of publication to the Journal office. The Journal was established in 1889 by Vermont's veteran job printer, H. B. Davis, and for the past two years has been owned by Allan S. Holbrook and John H. Fuller. The young men have given us an excellent paper and are in every way citizens whom we regret to lose. Mr. Holbrook has a position in Beloit, Wis., and Mr. Fuller will remain here for the present.

Miss Mary Emerson of Nashua, N. H., is spending a week with her parents

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Campbell spent a few days in Boston last week. Their alternoon.

little son Sherburne visited his grand-parents in Glover during the time.

The Village Improvement Society's next week. In connection therewith the mage sale has been held here, and there will without doubt be a good opportunity to secure good bargains. On one day there will be a food sale, strictly new, no last year's articles will appear in this. The ladies are hoping to raise a goodly sum to help on the year's expenses, so all turn out and encourage them.

LYNDON.

Miss Mary Bailey and Miss Ruth Mc-Laughlin of Peacham are visiting at Scott Farnum's.

Mrs. L. K. Swett and Murray Swett spent several days of last week in Bos-Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Morse and Master

Leslie went to East Cencord Saturday, to stay over Sunday. Mrs. Ellen A. Staples returned home

Wednesday from a two months' stay at her son's in Boston. Mrs. J. S. Thompson went Friday to Manchester, N. H., to care for her daughter, Miss Anna Thompson, who is very

Mrs. Mary Bowker went to Boston Wednesday, for a ten days visit. Murray Paris is spending the week in Mrs. S. W. Brown returns home this week from a visit in Portland.

Rev. William Shaw attended the preachers' meeting at Craftsbury last Melvin Davis has bought the George Grant farm for $900. The present occupant, Carl Houghton, is moving to a house near the burned leather board mill and Mr. Davis is ready to take Scott M. Farnum has sold the Ruggles meadow to Charles M. Darling for $1250, and has bought the Leith farm at Cold Corner.

James Lamond has bought a farm in Kirby of Mr. Brooks and has sold his blacksmith shop in this village to Will

The firm of Taplin, Rowell, Lang and Webster have hired the storehouse recently erected by Scott Farnum and put in flour, grain and feed and opened it to the public last Friday.

Aleck Aldrich has recently moved his family into a tenement in Mary Knapp's house. Miss Knapp has reserved for herself a few rooms in the chambers of the ell part and rented the tenement she has formerly occupied to Mr. Hill of Barton Landing.

Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Clark have returned from a carriage drive to the north part of the state. The ladies of the Methodist society served a hash supper at the vestry Friday evening, clearing over $5. The Methodist Sunday school wishing to express their thanks to Eugina Clement for furnishing a team to carry them to Bean pond some little time ago, made him a visit in his home Wednesday evening. Mr. Bradley and Mr. Farnum carried up about 30 in two double teams. Mr. and Mrs. Clement received and entertained them very cordially and all enjoyed the evening very much. Cake coffee and apples were served. The dance in Mechanic's hall last week was attended by 30 or more couples. The Daughters of Liberty will hold promenade and box supper at Mechanics hall Saturday evening. A fee of ten cents will be charged at the door and the boxes will be sold at auction.

Henry Ingraham of Holyoke, Mass., was in town last week called here by the illness and death of his sister, Mrs. Park Bennett.

It is understood that evangelistic meetings are to be held at the Congregational vestry four evenings next week. The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church are enjoying a dinner at Mr. Chayer's today at 1 o'clock. The Methodist Sunday school have ust purchased over $20 worth of books for their library, including history, travel tenement in Mrs. Swett's house to a part of his father's house. Mrs. Walker of Whitefield, N. H., ad dressed the audience at the Methodist church Sunday evening. Two young ladies sang a duet and four little girls rendered a piece in a pleasing manner.

having been trained by Miss Ellen Water-

Murray Paris has moved from the

Mrs. Susan Bennett died at her home in this village Thursday afternoon after a short illness of gastric lever. Mrs. Bennett was one of the daughters of Jeremiah and Eunice L. Ingraham and vas born in Thetford, in November, 1842. She was married to Parker B. Bennett in Victory in 1860 and has resided in this place over 30 years. Mrs. Bennett leaves her husband and one son, Perley, to who she was a devoted mother, beside several brothers and Funeral services were held at the home Saturday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Mr. Shaw. Flowers were sent by friends including a bouquet by the Sunshine society, of which she was a member.

WALDEN.

F. M. Shaw returned Saturday night rom a business trip to Newport and Mrs. Bert McGinnis has been visiting at S. V. Meader's. Rev. Mr. Atkinson visited at Ed. Kittredge's last week on his way to Boston.

Among those who took in the Boston excursion last week were N. J. Kingsbury, Mr. and Mrs. Mart Garfield, O. D. Kingsburg and James Steele.

Miss Mabel Esden spent Saturday and Sunday at his home in Greensboro. Fred Powers moved his family to Peacham last week. Herbert Woodard moves onto the farm vacated by Mr.

Rev. Mr. Martin and wife attended the preacher's meeting at Crattsbury last

Mr. J. Hubbard, with his daughter and granddaughter of Kennebunk Beach, are visiting his niece, Mrs. Emma Jenni-

The Ladies Aid Society meets with Mrs. John Hanna this week on Thursday

PHOTOS ELECTRIC LIGHT.

> To accommodate those who find it difficult to get a sitting in the day time. I now have a system of Electric Lighting in my Studio, and will make sittings Monday. Thursday and Saturday evenings from 7.30 to 9.00. Come and see them. You can't tell them from day light Photos.

C. H. CLARK, Photographer, 26 Eastern Avenue.

AT DANVILLE.

Charles and Mary Cummings are recovering rapidly from diphtheria and no new cases have been reported.

Miss Ida Pavne of Lisbon is visiting her uncle, Col. William Dole.

R. C. Davis has returned from Boston, where he has been visiting friends. Mrs. John Drown and Mrs. John Stafford of Burke have been visiting at Silas Boyce's. Alfred Nunn of Boston has been spendng a few days in town on account of the illness of his father, John Nunn.

Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Lane of Newton | Burbank & Robie. Highlands, Mass, have been visiting at Miss Belle Danforth's.

S. O. Morse is traveling in Vermont and New Hampshire for Our Husbands' Manufacturing Co. of Lyndonville. Mr. and Mrs. Francis Barker of Sutton were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Palmer, Tuesday. Mrs. M. F. Pilgrim and Miss Carol Sturdevant are in Boston for a ten days'

Mrs. Freeman Allison is visiting her sister at McIndoes. Mrs. John Page of St. Johnsbury visited at F. J. Preston's, Thursday.

The Ladies' Aid social of the Methodist church and the Christian Endeavor social which were to have been held this week have been indefinitely postponed. Moses G. Pearsons of Wolcott has purchased the Walter Haviland farm and is moving onto the place. Mr. Daniell retains the right to cut the lumber on the place. Hiram Hawkins is moving from the Haviland farm to the place purchased of George Parker. The meeting of Hazen Road Pomona Grange is postposed from Saturday, October 21 to Saturday, November 4. All members of Danville Grange P. of H., are requested to be at the regular meeting, Tuesday, October 24, to make final arrangements for entertaining Pomona Grange. Herman Osgood and wife of Cabot have been visiting their aunt, Mrs. Caroline Kittredge. Mrs. Fred Stocker is quite seriously ill with a cold and severe cough and a trained nurse from Burlington is caring

Mrs. Annette Farr is visiting at L. G.

Burnbam's in Burlington.

We wish to thank the friends who so kindly assisted during the illness and death of our son and brother, Lawrence. The many floral tributes of love, the sympathetic resolutions from the Chapter of the Eastern Star and the Masonic Lodge coming at such a time touched a responsive chord in our hearts. MR. AND MRS. W. F. DOLE,

ELEAZER J. DOLE, GEORGE M. DOLE.

Don't Borrow Trouble.

It is a bad habit to borrow anything, but the worst thing you can possibly borrow, is trouble. When sick, sore, heavy, weary and worn-out by the pains and poisons of dyspepsia, biliousness, Bright's disease, and similar internal disorders, don's sit down and brood over your symptoms, but fly for relief to Electric Bitters. Here you will find sure and permanent forgetfuliness of all your troubles, and your body will not be burdened by a load of debt disease. At Flint Bros., and F.G. Landry's drug stores. Price 50c. Guaranteed.

BARNET.

The Entertainment Course. The season tickets for the entertainment course for this fall and winter are now being delivered, the different attractions and dates being as follows: Carmen's Italian Boys and Elbert Foland, Oct. 24; Daniel Webster Davis, Dec. 26; The Odeon Male Quartette and Nettie Jackson, Jan. 3; Cosmopolitan Concert Co., Feb. 13. This is an exceptionally strong and expensive course for a small place and the attractions are all first class in every respect. Appreciation of the opportunity to attend thoroughly good entertainments is shown by the arge number of season tickets being

Mrs. Harry Harden opens millinery rooms at The Studio, this week for the season. She will have her opening there this week Friday and Saturday.

The parlor meeting and tea of the W C. T. U. will be held this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charlotte Dow. Miss Margaret Willey has returned to Portland, Maine. Miss Effie Goodell has been spending few days at her home in Cabot. Dr. Elliot spent several days last week in Burlington. Mrs. Henry A. Gilfillan is visiting her daughter in Turners Falls, Mass."

Rev. James K. Kilbourn attended the Christian Endeavor convention at Piermont, N. H , Wednesday.

Rev. Joseph Boardman, who has been visiting his old parishioners, returned to Plymouth last week. Miss Maggie Smith is working for Roy Brothers in East Barnet. W. H. Burbank spent Sunday in Dan-

F. E. Potts and family of St. Johnsbury spen: Sunday at Sherburne Moore's. Frank Willey has returned from Bos-

Roscoe Renfrew is back again with

The entertainment last week given by the boys and girls for the benefit of the Village Improvement society was well attended and thoroughly enjoyed by all. The children all did very well and reflected credit upon their own ability and also | cently. that of Mrs. Albee, who had them in charge. The first prize was divided between Abbie Hall and Adrial Cook, the second between Juanita Kilbourn and Hazel Welch, and the third was given to Elsie Parker. Instrumental and vocal music completed the program. Mrs. Dow sang an old ballad and Miss Bertha Smith, a colored girl, sang several selections. All enjoyed the melody of her voice. Rev. Mr. Roberts of Monroe, Miss Margaret Willey and Miss Jean Moore of North Monroe, were judges of the prize speaking, and $11.85 was added to the treasury of the Village Improvement society.

NORTH DANVILLE.

Mrs. Mitty Batchelder, formerly of this place, is visiting friends about here. John P. Weeks visited his brother, P. A. Weeks of West Hartford the past Boston on the excursion Wednesday. D. W. Hubbard is visiting relatives in Hardwick.

Mrs. Harriet Stanley and son John have been visiting ber father, Jack Robert, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Gadapee, who has been quite dangerously ill, is now improving. Mrs. D. C. Gage of St. Johnsbury has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. W. Morrill. Mrs. Fred Wark of Laconia, N. H., has also been visiting there.

Peter Gadapee, who has been ill for a long time, is failing. H. A. Kelsev goes this week to California, where he will spend the winter.

Will Cheney's farm. David Smith of Sullivan, N. H., is visiting his brother, L. W. Smith. Mrs. W. S. Langmaid is visiting her sister in Williamansett, Mass. Mark Hubbard has been visiting friends in Knowlton, P. Q, for a few days. D. C. Gage and sister, Mrs. Nancy Rollins, of St. Johnsbury, were at C. W.

Morrill's over Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Paquin of Peacham visited relatives here the first of the week.

The Junior Order will give a dance and oyster supper at their hall, Oct. 19. Music will be furnished by Mrs. Brock's orchestra.

SOUTH RYEGATE. The Quarrymen's Strike Settled.

The strike of the quarrymen at the three granite quarries in this town which has been in progress since October 2, when the old bill of prices ceased, was settled last Wednesday morning and the men went to work, a new bill of prices calling for an eight-hour day and 25 cents | bury Wednesday. an hour pay having been decided upon. The three quarries affected by the strike, which comprised about forty men, were those of Martin Gibson, Be zie & Mc-Cleary, and the Granite Construction Co., the latter company holding out last. The quarry of Morrison Bros., was not affected by the strike, the owners signing the new bill of prices at the first of the

RYEGATE.

Miss Sarah J. Nelson started Tuesday last week for lowa to visit her sister and friends expecting to remain for a lew months.

Mrs. William Taylor, Miss Abbie Miller, Mrs. B. L. Terry, Carlyle McLam and Mrs. Whitehill took advantage of the excursion to Boston, Thursday. Mrs. B. W. Wright returned from Boston, Thursday, for a short stay before going to St. Johnsbury for the winter. Mrs. Thurlow of Boston visited her father, J. P. Symes, last week.

After the service here Sunday Rev. Mr. McKirahan drove to Topsham and occupied the pulpit there at 2 p. m., returning in the evening. He was accompanied by Mrs. McKirahan and F. H. White and wife.

We are very sorry to note the serious illness of Miss Lottie McLam of gastric fever. Her many friends anxiously await more favorable symptoms.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Houghton of Greensboro spent Sunday at S. E.

Houghton's. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cutting of Morrisville visited at C. T. Adams' recently. Mrs. O. E. Bundy of Sutton, Mrs. H. L. Houghton and Mrs. William D. Barr of this place spent Wednesday with Miss Mary Patch at the home of Harve Rogers in Cabot.

Frank Newton of Marshfield was in this vicinity buying cattle Saturday. Miss Grace Blake was home from Marshfield over Sunday.

Alvin and Will Dunn went to Boston on the excursion Wednesday. Mrs. S. E. Houghton visited her sister, Mrs. Frank Walbridge, in Cabot, Satur-

A. M. Brown was in Hardwick re-Will Hanscome and son Harley were home from their work in Peacham over

Mrs. O. E. Bundy, who has been visiting relatives in this place, has returned to her home in Sutton.

Mrs. Romelia Adams of Northfield has been visiting at Charles Adams. Mr. and Mrs. George Drew of Marshfield were at his farm the first of the Miss Julia Heath has returned from her visit at B. H. Clark's in Barre. George Morse and family are moving from the Wooster place to Dighton Hall's farm, more familiarly known as the "Paquin place."

WEST BURKE.

To Be Addressed by Gov. Bell. Unity Council, No. 27, Jr. O. U. A. M., will hold a public meeting in Grand Army Mrs. W. H. Stanton, Charles Stanton, hall next Tuesday evening and some B. G. Varnum and H. B. Ward went to noted speakers have been engaged for the occasion. The speakers will include Gov. Bell, Rev. A. F. Walch, Guy W. Hill, both of St. Johnsbury, State Councilor C. W. Coffrin of Lyndon and Junior Past Councilor George W. Young of St. Johnsbury. Good music will be provided and a most profitable time is expected. Mrs. E. G. Way was in Lyndonville,

The first number in the lecture course is a concert by Carmen's Italian Boys, Oct. 25. Mrs. Will Cheney of St. Johnsbury visited in town Sunday. Charles Chency of Newark has bought

Mrs. Will Roundy is very sick. The Sunday school of the Methodist church had a rally day Sunday. A very interesting program was given. Herbet Fowler returned from Boston, Thursday. Mrs. Evelyn McBryer from Tulon, Ill. is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. H. Hickie. Len Watson and wife are going to Southern Pines for the winter.

GREENSBORO. F. H. Dufur was in Montpelier Satur-L. A. Jackson was in Coventry Satur-

day. B. M. Willey has a gang of men working on the basement wall to his store. Mrs. Laura Hartson and Mrs. Jennie Philbrook returned from their vacation

Mrs. Jane Blake is visiting in Coventry for a few days.

Mrs. Sarah French returned to Craits-One of the pleasant events of the season was Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Ritchie when about 150 people gathered for a good time and an oyster supper. The combination was a success, the net proceeds were $27 above expenses to the credit of the U. P. church society.

Dr. Daley arrived at his cottage Friday for a lew days and was summoned to Montpelier Saturday morning by the death of his mother.

BRADFORD.

The W. R. C., fair was a great success. The flower garden afforded a great deal of amusement for young and old. Mrs. Eliza Barrett leaves this week to spend the winter in California.

Hiram Kimball, a life long resident, died at his home Saturday morning. Salisbury Hyde of Hartford, Conn., is in town for a few weeks. Mrs. E. P. Norcross has gone to Beth-brothers and sister. Mrs. Hattie Rowell of Hanover spent last week with her daughter, Mrs. Mate Jenkins.

ehem to spend the winter with her

Mrs. David Blakely and Pauline re turned home from New York Saturday. Mrs. F. H. Bickford is visiting her sisbefore her return.

THE VITAL CENTER

No Man Stronger than his Stomach-Let Mi-ona Strengthen your Digestive System.

The stomach is your vital center.

Every organ of the body is sustained | cases where Mi-o-na is used. and nourished by food which is convertnourishment, all other organs soon be- | bealth.

come well. This explains many cures of No man is stronger than his stomach. heart, liver, or kidney diseases in the

It is the most wonderful health restorer ed into nutrition in the stomach and known, and is sold by W. B. Eastman conveyed to every part of the system in under an absolute guarantee that it costs the form of blood. For this reason, when nothing unless it restores health. Just the stomach is strengthened with Mi-o- one little tablet out of a 50 cent box of Mi-o-na for a few days, and you will na and is able to convert the food into soon see a great improvement in your

PASSUMPSIC. her nephew, Charles Harvey, the first of tound guilty of murder in the second the week and called on other friends. to break three bones in his right foot a roof of the barn at Brightlook Hospital, is out on crutches. J. M. Pinney, who was at home over couple of weeks ago by falling from the Sunday, has returned to Greensboro. The audience room of the church was in readiness for services last Sunday. Owing to the generosity of the people and the different organizations of the village it was possible to lay out quite a sum of money on repairs. The Debating and Literary society, the Grange, the Ladies' V. I. S., and Y. P. S. C. E., all gave liberally to this work. The Ladies' Mission Circle took it upon themselves to make some necessary repairs on the parsonage. The Y. P. S. C. E. bave also bought a piano, which was in place and ready for use on Sunday. The church was refrescoed, the woodwork dressed over, and a new carpet laid. The vestry will now receive a thorough going over, after which everything will be in good shape for the winter. Rev. C. D. R. Meacham, former pastor of the church here, has accepted a unanimous call to his old pastorate in Townshend, and began his work as pastor of the church, Sunday, Oct. 8. At the same time he received a unanimous call to become pastor of the church in Jamaica, but preferred his former and much loved field of labor. The Arion Concert Company of St. Johnsbury will give an evening entertainment in Randall's hall, Friday, under the auspices of the Literary and Debating club. This club has been a great belp to the young people of the village and vicinity and while they have not been holding their meetings regularly through the summer months, we are glad to know they are still in existence. It is hoped this concert will receive liberal patronage from the public, and thus give themselves an enjoyable and profitable evening and help the young people to get a tresh start for their winter work.

VERMONT NEWS.

A Post Office Robbed. The East Fairfield post office was rob-

bed last week Tuesday night by persons unknown at present, and about $800 was stolen. The burglars cut out the glass of one front window, raised the sash, and entered the office lobby. They pried open the sale by the use of an iron bar and chisel, and robbed it of its entire contents consisting of about $800 in stamped paper and money. A large number of valuable papers of a public and private nature, deeds, mortages and insurance papers were taken.

The farmers who come into Montpelier daily with their produce report a scarcity of potatoes which has been unparalleled in any other year. One man said that he dug over one and one-half acres o' ground recently with the result that he picked up but eight bushels of good potatoes. A potato famine is feared because of the continued wet weather. Potatoes at present are selling for seventy cents in Montpelier. In some of the towns outside they are retailing as high as eighty ter in Dover. She will visit in Boston cents, while the crop is not above the average.

WHOLE

not cut

CLEAN

not sticky

Buy a package to-day Your Grocer

can get them

Without the contraction of even an Mrs. B. T. Webb of Newport visited eyelid, Benjamin Williams, who was man McGrath, at Burlington, received a sentence of life imprisonment on Wednesday from Judge Seneca Haselton in county court. He maintained the silence which has signalized his demeanor since his arrest and was apparently the most uninterested person in the court room. The J. C. Holmes company at Springfield, manufacturers of yarn and cotton, was placed in the hands of a receiver on Wednesday and H. H. Slack appointed to the position of receiver. He was appointed upon the petition of Lawrence

& Wheeler, insurance agents of that place. H. L. Delano, of Morrisville, says that seventeen years ago October 2, the ground freze so hard that the weight of a horse made no impression on it and snow fell to a depth of three inches at his place. Mr. Delano says that a beautiful autumn followed this freeze and that apples and other fruits and vegetables gradually thawed so that they were not

Bankruptcy Notice.

PETITION FOR DISCHARGE. Edward Laflamme, seriously damaged.

To the Hon. Hoyt H. Wheeler, Judge of the District Court for the District of Vermont. Bother Court for the District of Vermont, Edward Laflamme of Lyndon, in the County of Caledonia and State of Vermont, in said District, respectfully represents:
That on the 16th day of January, last past, he was duly adjudged bankrupt under the Acts of Congress relating to bankruptcy; that he has duly surrendered all his property, and rights of property, and has fully complied with all the requirements of said Acts and of the orders of the Court touching his bankruptcy:

In Bankruptey

and of the orders of the Court touching his bankriptcy;
Wherefore, he prays that he may be decreed by the court to have a full discharge from all debts provable against his estate under said Bankrupt Acts, except such debts as are excepted by law from such discharge.
Dated this 3rd day of June, A. D. 1905.
Edward Laflamme Bankrupt.

ORDER OF NOTICE THEREON. United States District Court for the District

re Edward Laflamme, Bankrupt, Discharge.

Notice is hereby given that Edward La-flamme, Bankrupt, has filed his petition, dat-ed June 3rd, 1905, praying for a dis-charge from all his debts in bankruptcy, and that all creditors and other persons objecting to such discharge may appear before me at my office in St. Johnsbury aforesaid, on the 30th day of October, A. D. 1905, at 9 clock a. m., and then and there present their objections if any, to such discharge, with

MARSHALL MONTGOMERY, Referee in Bankruptcy, Dated at St. Johnsbury, Vt., this 14th day

Probate of Will. JOHN EWELL'S ESTATE.

STATE OF VERMONT, Caledonia district, ss. In Probate Court, held at the Probate Office in St. Johnsbury, within and for said district, on the 11th day of October A. D. 1905. on the 11th day of October A. D. 1905.

An instrument purporting to be the last will and testament of John Ewell, late of Peacham, in said district, deceased, being presented to court by M. D. Warren, the excutor therein named for Probate: It is ordered by said Court that all persons concerned therein be notified to appear at a session of said Court, to be held at the Probate Office in St. Johnsbury on the 4th day of Nov., A. D., 1905, and show cause if any they may have, against the probate of said Will; for which purpose it is further ordered that a copy of the record of this order be published three weeks successively in the Caledonian, orinted at St. Johnsbury, previous to said time ap-St. Johnsbury, previous to said time ap-pointed for hearing.

Attest, WALTER P. SMITH, Judge.